

SUMMER BUMMER (RANDOM NOTES ON THE BLACK SWAN THEORY)

Erin S. Taylor

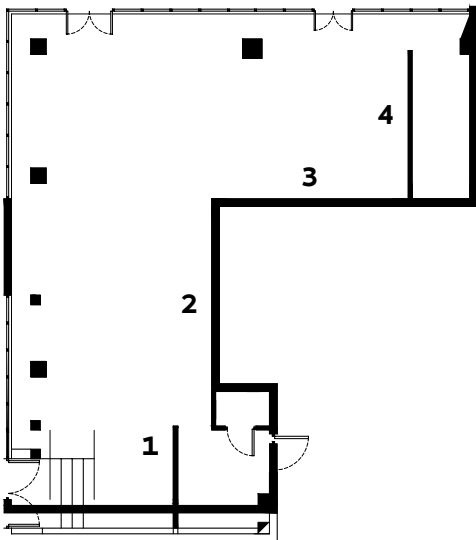

Exhibition period: 21.04.2023-27.04.2023, 19:00-21:00

CLOSING SOON presents Summer Bummer (Random Notes on the Black Swan Theory), a solo exhibition of Erin S. Taylor.

The installation consists of collages of images and texts that Taylor has collected from books, magazines, newspapers and posters since the early 2000s. The exhibition is a reproduction of the works that decorate her room in her parents' house, where she still lives today.

Summer Bummer (Random Notes on the Black Swan Theory) is her first solo exhibition.

Erin S. Taylor (b. 1990, Los Angeles, USA) lives and works between Los Angeles and New York. In 2013, she enrolled in the Cinema Studies program at the Tisch School of the Arts in New York, but she never graduated. She worked for brief periods as a production manager in Hollywood and for record labels in California. Since 2014, she has worked as an independent filmmaker and visual artist.

- 1 2 3 4 Summer Bummer (Random Notes on the Black Swan Theory)
2023
Cut out parts from books, magazines, newspapers and posters
Dimensions variable